By the helpful, genial netion of that most beneficent of aperients, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the bowels soon throw off the burdens that paralyzed and weakened thom, and resume their normal freedom of action. The action of the bitters, unlike that of average purgatives, involves no griping or drenching. If it did it would, like them, be valueless for ordinary use. There is nothing ungentic or unnatural attending its operation. Upon the liver, no less than the bowels, its action is most benign, promoting a healthful billious secretion, and directing out of the wrong into the right channel. Conjointly with costiveness, other billious symptoms disappear when it is systematically used, and the stomach is strengthened as well as regulated by it. Malarial complaints, then matism, debility, nervousness and kidney troubles are completely relieved by it. Sicep and appetite are promoted by it. Liberated from their Fetters

Mrs. Phobe Chesley, Peterson, Clay Co., Iowa, tells the following remarkable story, the truth of which is vouched for by the residents of the town: "I am 73 years old, have been troubled with kidney com-plaint and lameness for many years; could not dress myself without help. Now I am free from all pain and soretuss, and am able to do all my own housework. I owe my thanks to Electric Bitters for having renewed my youth, and removed completely all disease and pain." #### 'The Merry Maiden and the Tar.'

She was merriest before she 'struck" the tar. Her spirits sunk as she beheld her new white gown blackened by the tar. This tar helped a wagon run instead of helping run a ship. Just so a thousand trivial accidents and neglected "small things" take the meriment out of the lives of young girls and maidens. Particularly is this the case with diseases peculiar to their sex which take so much enjoyment and happiness from life.
